TONIGHT'S GAME

The Senators play their final series of the season as they take on the Altoona Curve in a four-game set beginning Friday night at PNG Field. The Senators wrapped up their home schedule by splitting a four game series with Akron, while the Curve have clinched a spot in the Eastern League playoffs. This is the first meeting between the two teams since the Curve took two out of three from the club July 17-19. Altoona holds an 8-5 edge in the season series.

RAUDY GETS THE CALL

Raudy Read was promoted to the Nationals on Monday, becoming the fourth 2017 Senator to be called up the Major Leagues (Andrew Stevenson, Erick Fedde and Adrian Sanchez). The catcher played 108 games with the Senators and led the club with 17 home runs, the most by a Senators player since 2014. Taylor Gushue was promoted to the Senators from Potomac to fill Read's roster spot.

SENATORS HITTING STREAKS

After his leadoff single Thursday night, Victor Robles has now recorded a hit in 17 consecutive games, the longest Senators hitting streak of the season. The streak is tied for the sixth longest streak in Senators history and it's tied for the second longest in the Eastern League this season. Prior to this season, no Senators player had recorded a hitting streak of at least 17 games since Jesus Feliciano's 17-game streak in 2005. Robles is batting .403 during the 16 games. Jose Marmolejos also extended his hitting streak to 15 after finishing 1-4 in the series finale against Akron.

CARDIAC KIDS

Wednesday's 6-5 win was the Senators sixth when trailing entering the ninth inning, the most such victories in the Eastern League. Yadiel Hernandez hit the Senators first walk-off home run since Stephen Perez hit one on July 26, 2016 against New Hampshire.

AUGUST ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The Senators led the Eastern League with a .279 batting average during the month of August. In addition, the Senators' 31 home runs were the most they have hit in a month this season and was tied for third most in the Eastern League in August.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Jose Marmolejos was named Eastern League player of the week for week of August 21-26. Marmolejos is the first Senator to be awarded player of the week honors this season.

SENATORS STARTING PITCHER

Brady Dragmire makes his final start of the year in the series opener against Akron. The right-hander 4-1 with a 2.93 ERA across 17 games and five starts with the Senators this season. Dragmire allowed four runs, three earned, across five and two-thirds innings in his last start against Reading on August 25. For more information on Dragmire, please visit page two.

ALTOONA STARTING PITCHER

The Curve counter with starter Mitch Keller. The right-hander is 1-2 with a 3.77 ERA across five starts with the Curve this season. Keller began the season with high-A Bradenton before being promoted to Altoona on August 4. The 21-year-old is the second best prospect in the Pirates organization and the #22 prospect in MiLB according to MLB.com
